THE CHINESE MEMORIAL TO THE QUEEN.

The following is an amended translation of the document upon which the Memorial to the Queen from the Chinese community was framed:-

The petition of merchants and residents of Hongkong. The administration of the Government being just and the mind of the people being gladdened, they jointly put their stamps to this memorial, humbly praying that it may be forwarded to the Empress of England, so that the feelings of the people may be expressed. Since the port of Hongkong was established no one has ever excelled Governor Hennessy in the art of administering the Government.

The British Government having got the right man, the merchants and people are rejoicing, and they write a public address in these words:-Governor Hennessy is kind and benevolent; since his arrival in this land the working of his good administration is heard all round. His Excellency has occasionally commuted a capital punishment to penal servitude. He has altered the old practice of flogging on the back to flogging on the breast. He embodies the mind of heaven and earth, he lives to promote life, and harsh punishment is therefore not placed in the first rank. All his efforts are meant to work a healthy and effective reform. Chinese and Foreigners are treated all alike, without regard to their race; people are living happily and contentedly, because the benefits of his policy extend to merchants and residents. Not even from the Ministers in former times can an Administrator be found who is His Excellency's equal. On

The Portuguese ship Alva left Manila on the 28th ult., and the French barque Cordeau left Hilo for Hongkong. The Spanish brigantine Villa de Rivadavia and the British ship Bianca arrived at Manila from Hongkong on the 29th ult.

It is notified in Saturday's Government Gazette that the Rev. R. Hayward Kidd, having returned to the Colony, resumed his duties as Colonial Chaplain from the 20th October; also that His Excellency the Governor has recognised Mr. Pichon as in charge of the French Consulate in Hongkong during the absence on leave of the Consul.

H. E. the Governor appears to have made the best use of his time during his short visit to Canton. On Sunday morning H. E., accompanied by the Consul staff and several members of the Legislative Council, paid official visits to the Viceroy and Governor, to whom H. E. was introduced by H. M. Consul. The same party visited the Halkwan later on in the day. All three officials returned the Governor's visit on board the Tokang the same afternoon.

A novel mode of gambling and evading criminal prosecution was brought to our notice to-day, viz., betting on the result of a game of ten pins. A number of coolies were assembled round the windows of the Cosmopolitan Club this afternoon, where they could see a party of foreigners playing bowls, and they bet 5 or 10 cash as the case might be on the number of pins which would fall at each throw. A good deal of native money is said to change hands in this way.

It may perhaps not be known to house holders what usually becomes of their equipment, and for their information we may mention that it is sold by their cooks to keepers of stalls in the Chinese markets, who re-sell it to the poor. Providing this is done with the knowledge and sanction of the householder, well and good; but we believe that cooks are in the habit of purchasing far more soup-meat than is necessary, for the very purpose of making a profit on it, and they do not boil it sufficiently as otherwise it would be unpalatable. Housekeepers would do well to keep their eyes open.

A case was brought before Mr. Francis to-day in which a butcher was charged with having diseased pork in his possession. Inspector Orley proved pretty conclusively that the meat was bad, but the defendant set up a very ingenious defence, viz: that it was for his own use; and Mr. Francis, upon hearing this, said that the man had a perfect right to eat what he liked. Perhaps he had, but we do not envy him his taste, and we would suggest that this butcher should not be lost sight of by Mr. Orley.

The Royal English Opera Company have been rather unfortunate of late in regard to their "houses." One evening the attendance at their performance was miserably small through a continuous and heavy down-pour of rain, and on another occasion a few days ago an entertainment elsewhere tended to lessen the patronage accorded to the Company. On Saturday evening again, "Saturnalia," which was well worth a third visit to the City Hall, only drew a thin house, though an entertainment at the German Club. The Germans are no doubt the best supporters of entertainments in the Colony, and when they have a "social evening" at their Club, and invite their numerous friends it is as useless to expect a full "house" at the City Hall as it is to imagine one will get to sleep until the small hours of the morning within a quarter of a mile of the jolly-but-musical sounds that issue from the Club Germania. The opera went off very successfully. Mr. Phillips, as we anticipated, made a very good "Achilles," although his "Hector" was rather a failure. The "Grand Vizier" and his "small boy" was also as amusing as ever. On Thursday night the Company produce a new opera—"The Bohemian Girl," and we hope and have no doubt they will be patronised on that occasion with a full house.

The following are the results of the first two days' races at Shanghai, received by wire:—
FIRST DAY.
The Maloo Plate (half mile)—Stallgraf.
The Criterion Stakes (one mile)—Black Satin (easy).
The Maiden Stakes (three-quarters of a mile)—Isgrin.
The Cup (two miles)—Infatuation.
The Jockey Cup (one mile)—Bad Boy.
The Hack Stakes (once round)—Strath-carr.
The Racing Stakes (mile and a quarter)—Toleration.
SECOND DAY.
The Northern Cup (half mile)—Black Satin (time 59 seconds).
The Shanghai St. Leger (mile and three-quarters)—Isgrin.
The Autumn Cup (three-quarters of a mile)—Strathcarr.
The Cosmopolitan Cup (once round)—Black Satin.
The Lima Mia Stakes (one mile)—Toleration.
The Mongol Cup (mile and a half)—Isgrin.
The Welter Cup (one mile)—Egmont.
It will be observed with interest that Mr. Paul has been very successful so far, having won the Criterion on the first day with Black Satin, and taken no less than three races out of the second day's running, two with Black Satin and one with Egmont; the time made by the former in the race for the Northern Cup was excellent.

Police Intelligence.
(Both Magistrates sitting.)
4th November, 1878.

ALLEGED LARCENY.
James Burns, private C. Company (No. 451), was charged with stealing a purse and ten dollars in silver from the person of a woman named Wong U, but the complainant being the only witness the defendant was discharged as the evidence was insufficient.

WRECKING THEM OUT.
Chung Aloi, a boatman unemployed, was charged by Sergeant Toomey with being a suspicious character, and having no visible means of support. The Sergeant said he had seen the defendant loitering about for the last month. He never appeared to do any work, but followed sampan about and looked into their pockets. There were three previous convictions against him. The defendant said he was employed in the No. 5 boat; this was proved to be false, as on application to the Registrar General's Office it was found that no pullaway boat bore number 5.

Defendant was ordered to find two sureties of $20 each to be of good behaviour for three months.

NABBED.
Cheung Afuk, a fireman, unemployed, was charged by P. O. Campbell with stealing a pair of shoes on board the Canton steamer this morning, and was sent to six months' hard labour and ordered to be exposed in the stocks for three hours.

FIGHTING. Chan Aing and Kwai Aing, port coolies, were sent to 7 days' hard labour for fighting in the streets.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the "CHINA MAIL."

Hongkong, Nov. 4, 1878.

Sir, Your correspondent "A. B. O." is I fear under a false impression; he evidently thinks the ridiculous advertisement to which he refers in his letter of 2nd inst. to have been the memorial actually presented for translation, and that is where his error lies; the writer happened to know the entire history of the affair both in its inception and carrying out. This preposterous notion, dignified with the name of a memorial really had some genuine "shop chops" upon it, the writer having seen those of about twenty or thirty hangers and other poor ignorant people wholly unable to read or understand the merits of the case if explained to them; when by an error it was presented for signature at the house of a Chinese gentleman of average intelligence, the document in question was glanced at, the signatures upon it ridiculed and then the people presenting it turned out neck and crop amidst the jeers of some half-dozen people who witnessed the occurrence. The impudence of those who attached the Chinese characters Hop-kong-kung-pun to their nonsensical or rather sophistical effusion is only equalled by that of your correspondent A. B. O., who if he really possesses the information to which he pretends must be for reasons best known to himself suppressing it.

A. B. O.'s remark that "I had evidently come forward as the chosen champion of your morning contemporary" is so evidently absurd as to need no contradiction from myself. I would moreover call your attention to the "funny" paragraph introducing the translation published in your contemporary of this morning. One would have inferred that a gentleman accustomed to public writing might have managed to preface his translation with something a little less contradictory or more intelligibly written. By insertion of these few remarks you will much oblige.—Yours, &c.

In order to meet the wants of the major part of the Amoy community it is proposed to call a meeting of such residents of Amoy who are not members of the present "Amoy Club" in order to discuss the advisability of forming a "Junior Club" on more liberal principles than those of the Amoy Club now in existence. Should a sufficient number desire to become either shareholders or members, we have no doubt but that such a body will meet with signal success.

We learn that recently during the late hours of the night, a gang of thieves broke into a Chinese doctor's shop at Ta-Ha-Koo street in Amoy and made away with six boxes of clothing. The inmates of the house were fast asleep and when they rose in the morning found the door broken and that their clothing had disappeared. The Chinese doctor at once presented a petition to the Magistrate urging him to give orders to the police to discover their whereabouts.

SHANGHAI.
(News.)

Between fifty and sixty persons attended the meeting yesterday afternoon (Oct. 29th) at the offices of the Municipal Council, to consider the Volunteer question, and Mr. A. Davenport, H.E.'s Council, was elected to preside. Mr. Hart gave an outline of the career of each Company since 1870, explaining that No. 3 had collected No. 7 had 81 members and the
